

Senior Appointments at LTS Tax Limited

To help manage its expanding practice, LTS Tax Limited is pleased to confirm four recent senior appointments.

Julian Turian has joined as a tax director, Helen Salisbury as a tax manager, with Katie Roberts and Richard Ozanne joining as assistant tax managers.

Julian, Katie and Richard previously worked together and between them provide both Guernsey and UK tax services to private individuals and companies in Guernsey, including assisting individuals wishing to relocate to Guernsey.

Helen specialises in the UK taxation of trusts, estates and complex structures and she provides services to local trustees and intermediaries and high net worth individuals.

Fran Snoding, managing director of LTS Tax Limited, said that as taxation becomes ever more complex we are seeing an increased demand for our services. These senior appointments, of qualified and well-respected individuals, bolster our already strong team, as we continue to manage a period of sustained growth. Collectively, they bring a wealth of experience and knowledge in dealing with the complexities of Guernsey and UK taxation for all manner of clients.

LTS is now a team of nineteen, with sixteen qualified professional advisers, including accountants, STEP qualified tax advisers, and eleven Chartered Tax Advisers.
